Miya's Guide to Women!

January 27, 2019

Women aren't bad, the Jews made them bad. Women aren't to blame, rather the weak men that came before you who failed to protect them.

Female attraction is in every aspect derived from the fundamental goal of finding the best mate to deliver and support the strongest offspring.

If you can't find a good woman it's probably because you're not a good man.

If you work on becoming a good man, women will come to you without you trying.

It's your job as a good man to identify the good women.

Good women always have strong father figures in their lives. Good wives consider their husband to replace their father figure.

Women have some underlying spoiled tendencies but it's by design. They're meant to be tamed by a strong male figure and accomplishing it proves you worthy to replace their father.

If you treat your women rightly, her love will blossom like a flower. If you ignore her feminine essence, do not tame her inner child and do not encourage her creativity, she will spoil and turn rotten.

A husband is to his wife as a parent is to their child. Your women should not be seen as below you, just like you wouldn't see a child as such, but their limitations should be understood: they should be treated with patience, care and calm, and should never be expected to hold the same degree of responsibility and work as you. Just as it's absurd to expect such from a child, it's absurd to expect it of a wife.

Never devalue women. They each have boundless love, empathy and creative energy to provide to any man that deserves it. They are the givers of life and deeply imbued with a intuitive and social intelligence that no man will ever match. The genders are equal in inherent value and importance, the balance of both is necessary for proper union, but they are essentially different in every way and the gendered roles that result are essential to a functioning household and marriage. Thinking they're the same is the root of destroyed modern relationships, and this has been done entirely by design.

TTRPG's White Male Heritage

January 23, 2019

I got banned from /tg/ for pointing out that exclusively “white men” had completely invented military war gaming, recreational war gaming and finally tabletop RPG. so why does it matter if minority’s aren’t represented or feel welcomed? it’s not their space.

But what about Go and Shogi?

by military war gaming, I mean war games that were developed and used by the military to simulate tactical warfare, e.g. Kriegsspiell. Go, Shogi, Chess, etc. are boardgames that are abstractions of war. Modern boardgames trace their lineage to them. TTRPG's do not except as far Prussian wargames might have taken inspiration from any kind of gaming, which is something independently developed in every culture.

Wargaming and boardgaming represent two separate modern lineages, and roleplaying games were irrefutably born out of the former. D&D's development is well documented and the influences they traced continuously follow an exclusively White Male tradition all the way down the line, even as far as its pulp Scifi/fantasy literature goes (though one can admit to the presence of some White Female influence in that field even if none are noted in Appendix N). The tradition of recreational wargaming began in Prussia and later migrated to the UK (the first use of miniatures was by a Scotsman), and eventually came to be dominated by America. Nowhere in wargaming history are non-Whites "represented".

But minorities did contribute to ruin TTRPG's in the 90s after forcing themselves into the White Male space. Any TTRPG system that was ever released after AD&D 1e (excepting MYFAROG) is terminal cancer.

National Socialism

January 22, 2019

National Socialism really is the model of an ideal society for most people, left & right. This is because the entire design of the system is built around one singular goal: maximizing the well-being of its citizens. A most noble goal, and every principle followed from it:

The people had total freedom in everything from business to guns, while still having the strongest social, elderly, ecological and animal welfare initiatives in history. They ended fiat currency and built a labor-backed dollar; they banned usury, taking interest on loans, to eliminate debt-slavery.

The only economic interventions made were in regulating things that have the potential for degeneration, negative influence society, such as advertising or porn. The only restrictions on freedom of speech were that threatened to damage society. To eliminate destructive foreign influence, they restricted media outlets to only their own citizens.

They heavily emphasized the right to employment, providing nationalized jobs when none were available (they are the only nation to ever achieve 0% unemployment). They were strict with criminals, with violent crime placed on the same level as financial exploitation. They encouraged the health and physical fitness of their youth; they supported their mothers. They maintained full religious freedom.

Who can disagree with any of this? It's a utopian society, and it existed. There are only two caveats. One, the citizenship was limited to people who were actually German—true of many countries today (try getting a Chinese, Japanese or S. Korean citizenship) but still against the leftist dream of the above utopia + brownwashing. But second, and most important, they expelled the Jews.

Of course, that's what made utopia possible in the first place. It's also why they were antagonized into an unwanted war, and after had their reputation destroyed in an attempt to make the world forget its only living utopia.

But now you know, and you only have to sacrifice one thing to get it. Is it really a hard trade?

"For me and all true National Socialists there is but one doctrine: people and the fatherland. What we must fight for is to safeguard the existence and reproduction of our race and our people, the sustenance of our children and the purity of our blood, the freedom and independence of the fatherland..."

"Every thought and every idea, every doctrine and all knowledge, must serve this purpose. And everything must be examined from this point of view and used or rejected according to its utility. Then no theory will stiffen into a dead doctrine, since it is life alone that all things must serve."
Adolf Hitler - Mein Kampf, VI. CHVIII

Privilege as it Relates to Racial Responsibility

January 22, 2019

Here's a math problem. A Chinese guy's running a corner shop in a bad part of town. He doesn't have time for bourgeois concerns over microaggressions or systemic racism. He's just trying to make ends meet by minimizing shoplifting.

A black teen & a white teen both walk into the shop separately. He can only keep his eye on one at a time. He doesn't recognize either of them, but from previous experience, black have been the ones who steal most often.

Inversely, he has almost never caught a white shoplifting. This doesn't come out of any racism, it's just pattern recognition based on data. Whether or not it's due to their poverty or education levels isn't relevant to the shop owner, all that matters is which individual is more likely to steal.

Acting logically, should he split his attention evenly, or focus more on one?

Of course he'll focus on the black. Is this unfair to the individual? Perhaps, but the shopowner is only being rational.

Now the white has an opportunity to exploit his "privilege" and steal with lower risk of getting caught. But he doesn't. Why not? Because if he did, then whites would no longer have that privilege.

There's a racial responsibility they each carry as a group, and they can act selfishly and dishonorably at scale to exploit their privilege, or choose not to. The whites earned their privilege by acting honorably & continue to maintain it by not exploiting their privilege.

The blacks, on the other hand, did exploit their basic trust by stealing, lost the privilege, & continued to steal, never earning it back. So the shopowner watches him like a hawk. Is it unfair? To the individual maybe, but as a group, they collectively earned their position. If they want something to change, it doesn't start with blaming the chinese shopowner for being racist, it doesn't start with the blaming the white for being privileged, it starts with the blacks-for not deserving privilege.

If you want to be treated like white people, you have to start acting like them. The Asians did it, why can't you?

Why Not Gorilla Suffrage?

December 19, 2018

If we introduced gorillas into society instead of keeping them locked to zoos, I'm sure they could integrate just as nicely as other oppressed minorities have.

Their initial test performances might be lower, their average IQ, etc. but this can be explained by nutritional and social differences due to their history of zoological slavery.

Their propensity towards violent crime can be explained similarly.

Even if these hold true after multiple generations and extensive integration attempts, we can be sure this is due to residual specieism and not innate genetic differences. So why not give gorillas the vote too? I mean, we already gave it to niggers.

5 Steps to Save a Nation

January 19, 2019

How to save a nation in 5 steps:

First, you kill the Jews, who always seek to ruin and exploit other nations.

Then, you remove any peoples who are not native to the country in question*.

Then, you remove any vestigial influence left by the Jews, either by re-education, physical removal or otherwise. This includes everything under the cultural marxist platform: feminism, homosexuality, "sexual revolution," etc.

Then, you will work to re-coup and re-discover any heritage that may have been lost due to Jewish influence. You will work to carefully modernize your country based on the principles traditional to its native culture.

Now you may allow non-natives into the country but with limited rights on a temporary basis. Other peoples and countries will not be discriminated against, they will each be considered meritable under their own culture; but nothing will be done to draw their influence into the country's own identity.

 in Colonial countries, it may be justified to claim and migrate to foreign soil so it may be utilised by the superior people, in which case they will be considered the "native race" and the aboriginals should be eradicated, or at most, kept in zoos or protected land-plots as curios. This shouldn't be done to other human beings, and never to other Aryans, but to the primitive subhumans.*

Causes of Male Homosexuality

December 16, 2018

There are only 3 theories that provide a possible explanation for the cause of male homosexuality:

1. Estrogen overdose in the fetal stage due to genetic malfunction
2. childhood sexual abuse; very common in the male homosexual community (and they are also extremely over represented in committing it, thereby achieving reproduction)
3. some kind of parasite influencing rewiring the hosts sexual neural receptors, eg toxoplasmosis

The modern epidemic is most likely some combination of all three

existence of a male g spot isn't some kind of proof of evolutionary selection for homosexuality. The prostate is responsible for semen release and endocrine hormone production, and happens to be located in reach via sodomy. Prostrate orgasms need to be trained, rewiring the brains sexual response cycles.

Prostate stimulation is a sexual deviancy, a fetish that happens to have some biological basis (just like masochism) rather than a pure mental foundation.

Female Homosexuality

Female homosexuality differs greatly in character from male homosexuality due to their sexuality being tied very strongly to the emotional and social, rather than physical. "All girls can be lesbian" because it only takes replacing their social context and hi-jacking their emotional cues to retain their sexuality into something deviant.

Hot Takes!

The jews invented transgenderism in worship of their hebefreak god ywhw in wermacht Germany by forced sexual reassignments to destroy the Aryan people through jewish mind control or some thing like that.

The queer movement is artificial and designed as part of a wider movement to weaken the blood and bonds of aryan society such that they're more easily broken in and mind controlled for the future loxist state. Queer sexuality is a corruption of man's inherent soul.

Japanese influenza virus is a nuclear mind control schizo zombie virus throwing people off bridges and buildings and on front of trains.

213 million affected the government is trying to hide it but only S Korea knows.

IQ tests discriminate against niggers spics arabs and abbos. theres a whitey-asian-indian conspiracy to bring them down they made computers hard to use on purpose to so that they could make more money than us. its not natural its because food stamps dont give enough nutrition for our brain to grow otherwise we niggas would have above room temperature iq too and then we could have the will to do work too and not need food stamps you see thats welfare trap a jew taught me its systematic racism.
